

This space is to be used for Best Practices ideas submitted by teachers.

Suitcase Project

For years, Noreen Atkins taught eighth grade students about the Holocaust through the entire school year. Along the way, she hit every educational standard for eighth grade with her students. As a final project, she asked the students to assemble a suitcase filled with items, each symbolizing a key aspect or incident about the Holocaust. Each student was given a rubric and were able to see a sample suitcase project.