And We Are Not Saved
This brief account of my life in the Warsaw Ghetto is an extract from a larger, more definitive study of the socio-psychological forces prevalent in Jewish life during two thousand years of diaspora. It will attempt to throw some light on the causes and effects of the behavior of the Jewish masses, their leaders and their persecutors, which culminated in the holocaust of our generation.

Wirth, Louis
The Ghetto
Wirth has demonstrated that the economic status of the Jews of today and the characteristics of the Jewish mind and personality all bear the impress of the social isolation of the ghetto, at first self-imposed, later formalized, and continued even after legal requirement had ceased.
