As the Nazi killing machine engulfed Europe with terror, thousands of Jehovah's Witnesses suffered brutal presecution. The reason: they stood firm in their beliefs and boldly spoke out against the cruelty of Nazism. For this, thousands of Jehovah's Witnesses were thrown into Nazi concentration camps. In this video, 10 European and American historians and more than 20 Witness survivors of the period, join in relating their story of courage and triumph against Hitler's religious onslaught. This kit provides a DVD and a VHS copy of the documentary video and a study guide for teacher use. Gr. 6-12.
